

Investors' Grievance Redressal Policy

As a constant endeavour to provide best investment experience and as a part of good governance measure, Dalal & Broacha Stock Broking Pvt. Ltd. (D&B) has developed comprehensive Investor Grievance Mechanism which is depicted in this policy.

D&B has a dedicated email id compliance.officer@dalal-broacha.com on which clients can email their complaints/queries. Details of the same are also updated on our web portal <https://www.dalal-broacha.com>

We have also made clients aware about process and benefits of filing complaint on SEBI's SCORES portal by giving direct link of SCORES on our website. Same is also given to clients as a part of welcome kit and Account Opening Form. Investor grievance escalation matrix is placed on website of D&B under contact us tab giving all the important details.

Grievances raised at branch level or at authorized person level is escalated to HO- Compliance Department Immediately and it is resolved within 15 days of receipt of the same. Grievances received from regulators are replied along with the supporting documents, if any, within the prescribed time limit to regulator.

A separate Grievance Register is maintained to record complaints received either by email / by letter / in person. As per company policy, we D&B give utmost importance to grievances received and our endeavour is to reply to the client by at most by next day. Under exceptional circumstances (where we need to collect data from various places /sources) or where further clarification is required, reply is served within 7 working days. Complaint resolution time limit is kept as 15-30 days internally.

Clients may also contact on telephone No.: 022-67141441 and talk to customer service representative or compliance manager for further assistance. Name of the Compliance Officer along with the email id to register the complaint has also been displayed on contract note, notice board.
